PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, BY II. J. HOWARD & B. R. COWEN. OFFICE ON NORTH SIDE OF MAIN ST.

A few doors west of Marietta Street why I give these little particulars. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. If paid within three months,

If poid after that time,

Papers discontinued only at the option of the edit white arrearages are due. TERMS OF ADVERTISING. Each square, (11 lines or less,) three week, Every solditional insertion, Yearly advertisements one column, Half column,

THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS ... 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the outrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subcontrary, are considered as wishing to continue their sub-actipition.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their per-riodicals, the publishers may continue to send them un-til all arrestages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their period-ica's from the offices to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled the bill, and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without in-forming the publishers, and the periodicals are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take per-foriced from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facile evidence of mentional fraud.

BPEDRE'B'BE W.

From Putnam's Monthly for August. THE OLD MILL. Unpun the hill

Standeth the quiet mill. Deep are the shadows that gather below Under the dripping flume— Dreamy the water's musical glow. Down in the noonday gloom.

Many a year The phebe hath builded here, Morning and night from the broken door Chaun ing her solemn strain, She sits where the sanst me checkers the floor, Singing of what has been. Close beside

The green qui-seem tide, The mapies but up in the airs of spring Their tuits of verme il flowers. And the atternoon robin stops to sing His song in the twinight hours.

Musing and watching his proy, The silem kinglisher sits on high, Dreaming under the leaves, Where the litted breezes wander by, And the birch its fragrance gives.

Through the trees That almost mingle their leaves, Steals down the blue of the summer : ky, Down where the lilier grow; And the sudden swallow flitting by, Dips his blue wings below.

From hidden springs,
Where the mottled ground thrush sings, And willows, and ferns, & water-docks stand Sliding along through the qui t protound; With bubble of banks and shining sand, The trout-haunted brook comes down-

Mingling its tune Dreamily all the afternoon, With the finkling echoes down in the wood, Where the cattle stand in the dell; And the cool duli plash of the drapping flood Beating the broken wheel.

In the light of the open day, With the sunsline glowing along their banks Over the dam and the trees, The clouds are marshalled in yellow ranks, Gleaning beyond the leaves.

Large and fair Were the castles I built in the air, Lifting on high their golden walls, With domes of the summer blue. And pillars of the cloud and far-reaching hall And the bright years shining through.

In its green and quiet decay, With its shatter'd windows and broken Is this crumbling tottering thing: With the sunshine of m mory over all, And the silence of death within

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE MECHANIC'S HOME A LIFE LESSON.

BY T. L. NICHOLS, M. D.

[The following simple story, founded on teach some useful lessons, we re-publish it bil's so as to select one to pay me.

here. Few such stories have had a wider Now I had made up my mind, before I had when we give a party."

where to place him myself. His dress was lowest fee. very neat, but plain and rather coarse. His linen, that badge of refinement, was white, You have been at more trouble than to merely in perfect order, and almost elegant. Every. write a prescription.' thing about him seemed substantial; but nothing gave me a clue to his position in life. In all outward seeming he was simply 'a man." When he spoke to me, his address was simple. clear, direct, and a certain air of self- toil.

ane

he!

'Doctor,' he said, 'I wish you to come and know more of him. see my child. We fear he is threatened with 'Take that,' said he, placing a two dollar

I put on my hat, and prepared to accompany him; for if the case were as he suppo- is no use pretending that you are not a little sed, there was no time to lose. In this dis- curious.'

The child, he said, had been playing out of and displayed the tools of a shormaker.

THE BELMONT CHRONICLE, still more, and in a few moments we were at 'No, nothing extra. I barely manage to But what do you eat and drink!' I asked link, what was wanting to fill up the cup of HASTE CHARACTERISTIC OF YOUNG point. He has tried bis right and failed. He of mat at the door. You will see in time began with nothing-we live us you see.'

> a rather pretty and remarkably tidy woman, pressed my surprise. who could have been nobody in the world but I should be very sorry if we spent so much.

'I am glad that you have come so soon,' savings bank.'

'Not above an hour,' was the calm reply water, while I rubbed him briskly with my be very good."

hand. He was then wiped dry, until his Mary looked up with such a bright, loving wise as William Carter!

wrung a large towel out of cold water, and notion, put around his throat, and then wrapped him in blankets. The brave little fellow had could come to him. In fi teen minutes after for the shop where I worked. We lived a of practical philosophy. he was wrapped in the blankets he was in a few weeks at her home; but it was not our Reader, if you are inclined to profit by rapid is this disease, and easily cored.

the countenance of the father, and thrown to dear, some too shabby. At last I found over the mother's face a glow of beauty. I this place. It was new and clean, high and looked upon them, and was more than ever airy, and I thought it would do. I got it for looked upon them, and was more than ever puzzled where to place them. There were no marks of high birth or superior breeding not the shadow of decayed gentility, about the shadow of decayed gentility, about a worse tenant. The place was naked enough, full years of our country's history, have on the shadow of decayed gentility. them. It was rather the reverse, as if they a worse tenant. The place was nak denough, were working up from a low rank of life to and we had little to put in it save ourselves; room. Everything in it was perfectly order- result.' ly. The bed, like the crib, was excellent how beautiful it looked! The white window home. curtains were shilling muslin, but their than ten dollars. The toiler-table, of an hold a council of war. 'Now, Mary, my love,' elegant form, and completely covered, and 1 said I, here we are; we have next to nothing, cost more than half a dollar. The pictures but ourselves to help ourselves." on the wall were beautifully tinted lithogra- 'We found that we could earn, on an avif an artist had designed it.

pieces, and landscapes; all such as a man of more.' taste could select and buy cheap, but which on one side of the chimney, which a single over. It cost more at first, but now we have accursed mark of Cain upon him.

treasures of the English tongue.

One evening in the early part of winter, to wait for my pay, perhaps never get it; but continued:

'One dollar does not seem enough,' said he. and have money in the bank.'

hoping to solve the mystery.

He smiled, and held out his hand, which 'You are a mechanic!' I said; willing to note in my haud, with a not-to-be-refused air could talk very well without her aid. "and I will gratify your curiosity; for there ease a single hour may make a life's differ- There was a hearty, respectful freedon about this that was irresistible. I put the In a moment we were in the street, and note in my pocket, and the man, going to a walking briskly up one of our broad avenues. door, opened it into a closet of moderate size, doors, had eaten heartily at supper, gone to You must be an extraordinary workman sleep, and waked up a short time since very said I, looking around the room, which seemhoarse, with a choking cough. The case ed almost luxurious; but when I looked at was a prety clear one, and I hurried my walk each item, I found that it cost very little.

the door. We went up—up, up—to the earn a little over a dollar a day. Mary helps tourth story. The last tight of steps was some. With the housework o do. and our carpeted, and a small lamp at the top lighted boy to look after, she earns enough to make us up. An excellent and very durable kind our wages average eight dollars a week. We

All this comfort, this respectability, this I entered the open door and was welcomed by almost luxury, for eight dollars a week! I ex-

the wise of the man who had summoned said he. 'We have not only managed to live little Willie, sat down to her sewing.

water here!'
The husband went to what seemed a closed, opened two doors, and disclosed a neat pine bathing-tub, supplied with Croton. Discovery the bathing-tub, supplied with Croton. The oak is example, I determined to give myself a House.'

most of my spare time, and the advantages peaches as soon as they are ripe and good.
Mr. B. was out hunting with his rifle, and that which, in the counsels of the Godhead, a large party assembled to witness the test. The dog was called in, and no sooner did he spontaneous. The oak is not monarch of the spontaneous. The oak is not monarch of the spontaneous. The oak is not monarch of the counsels of the Godhead, a large party assembled to witness the test. The dog was called in, and no sooner did he spontaneous. The oak is not monarch of the counsels of the Godhead. A large party assembled to witness the test. The dog was called in, and no sooner did he spontaneous. The oak is not monarch of the counsels of the Godhead. A large party assembled to witness the test. The dog was called in, and no sooner did he spontaneous. The oak is not monarch of the counsels of the Godhead. A large party assembled to witness the test. The dog was called in, and no sooner did he spontaneous. The oak is not monarch of the counsels of the counsels of the Godhead. A large party assembled to witness the test. The dog was called in, and no sooner did he spontaneous. The oak is not monarch of the counsels of the couns a small set-up, but we made it answer. I Scripture, "Go and do likewise," Happiness had shed a serene light upon spenta week in house-hunting. Some were

The white counterpages it? said I; willing to hear him explain the did not cost more than ten shillings-yet economies of this modest and beautiful

'Well, it is simple enough. When Mary olds hung as richly as if they were damask and I moved ourselves here, and took posses--and how appropriate they seemed! The sion, with a table, two chairs a cooking bath, with its snug folding-doors, I knew stove a saucepan or two, and a cot bed, with had not cost, plumber's bill and all, more straw mattress, the first thing we did was to had no doubt was white pine, and had not and we have everything to get, and nobody ohs-better, far better, than oil paintings I erage, eight dollars a week. We determihave seen in the houses of millionaires; yet ned to live as cheaply as possible, save all they can be brought at Goodpii's, or Williams we could, and make ourselves a home. Our. & Stevens' for from three to five shillings, rent was a dollar a week-our fuel, light, and a dollar a piece had framed them. The water rent, and some little matters, a d dlar floor had a carpet, that seemed to match more. We have allowed the same amount everything with its small neat figure, and for our clothing; and by buying the best light chamber color. It was a jewel of a things, and keeping them carefully, we dress room, in as perfect keeping in all its parts as well enough for that. Even my wife is satisfied with her wardrobe, and finds that raw and giving directions for his bath on his wa- run than calico at one shilling. That makes was differently, but just as neatly arranged, living to pay for. That costs us, with three

'One dollar a piece!'

me precisely how you live."

takes no snuff.

Here the pleasant smile came in, but there her husband knew what he was about, and 'I have not drank a glass of liquor since the day I was married, except a glass of wine about four times a year, on Christmas, New Year's, Fourth of July, and Willie's birthday. The last is our special holiday. I had read enough of physilogoy to make up my mind that tea and coffee contain no nutriment, and are poisonous besides; and I tried a vegetable diet long enough to like it better said, taking a light and leading the way into Lydian King. on that, but we have something laid up in the the best, and am sure that it is command g.d. rencontre drove Aaron Burr, the soldier, the which is contained in a pumphlet sent us.

wheat—eaten as mush or bread, and all made not—he walked erect at 80 years of age a. without boiling—and potatoes, or hominy, mongst those who despised him. It was Lear 'My name,' he said, 'is William Carter. or rice, the staple, you can easily see that facing the storm. It was made calm by a firm self-control. I My mother died when I was young, and I dollar a week for provisions is not only ample, looked at the mother. She was very pale, but did not trust herself to speak.

'Then there is but little danger,' I said; but we have something to do. Have you the water here!'

'A aughable illustration of the heading of this packers and water here!'

GLORIOUS UNCERTAINTY OF THE LAW.—

days. It might have sprung as instantants one as the light. And when He would combate the summer we have strawberries and peaches as soon as they are ripe and good.

A aughable illustration of the heading of this one as the light. And when He would combate the summer we have strawberries and peaches as soon as they are ripe and good.

Mr. B. was out hunting with his rifle, and that which, in the counsels of the Godbead, a large party assembled to witness the test.

The day are resemblance or no resemblance should be left to a little day belonging to the duchess, which was agreed to. Accordingly the picture was earlied in and one account of the following from the Peoria News:

Out thousand years for the development of that which, in the counsels of the lady the next.

The day are resemblance or no resemblance should be left to a little day belonging to the duchess, which was agreed to. Accordingly the picture was earlied in and peaches are consistent or a should be left to a little day belonging to the duchess, which was agreed to. Accordingly the picture was earlied in and peaches are consistent or a should be left to a little day belonging to the duchess, which was agreed to. Accordingly the picture was earlied in and peaches are consistent or a should be left to a little day belonging to the duchess, which was agreed to. Accordingly the picture was earlied in and peaches are consistent or a should be left to a little day belonging to the duchess, which was agreed to. Accordingly the picture was earlied in an are consistent or a should be left to a little day belonging to the day of the lady the rest to a little day belonging to the day of the lady the rest to a little day belonging to the day of the lady the rest to a little day full upon his neck and chest three pails of ple think very pretty, but whom I know to of evil and suffering might be prevented, it all the working men in New York were as costs, which amounted to about ten more; B. time must be taken, and deliberate thought whole body was in a flame. Then I smile, as to fully justify some people' in their | I never shook a man or woman by the hand with more hearty respect than when I said When I had been one year a journeyman "Good night" to this happy couple, who and had laid up a few dollars, (for I had a in this expensive city, are living in luxury borne it all without complaint, as if he un- strong motive to be saving.) we wer married. and growing rich on eight dollars a week, derstood that under his father's eye no harm I boarded at her father's and she bound shoes and making the bench of shoemaker a chair profuse perspiration, in a sound slumber, and home-the home we wanted; so we determis this little narrative, I need not write out breathing treely. The danger was over-so ned to set up housekeeping. It was rather any other moral than the injunction of

THE LATE AARON BURR.

The quiet erection of a tomb-ston

he should have been so forgotten. Tradition pied chair told its silent story. Leaving the boy to his untroubled sleep, silk at sixshillings a yard is cheaper in the long of his thread-bare coat; in others, like all art my sister." How awill that last supper king, we went into the other room, which three dollars a week, and we had still our power lost, he had no more favors to give, and sees there the seven plates & the seven chairs, It was hong with pictures—heads, historical in the family, just one dollar a week the flitting moths; but it cannot be dis- are, what shadows we pursue."—Cincinnati guised that those had torgotten, who should Gazette. have remembered him; he was shunned in the 'No-one dollar for all. You seem sur- street; his friends did not know thin; if pointed has died. Dr. Vattier alone is left. king of books, there was a hanging library prised, but we have reckoned it over and out at a distance it was as one who had the glance assured me contained the very choicest learned to live both better and chesper. So We do not know a sublimer picture than that we have a clear surplus of four dollars that presented by this celebrated man, in the The man went to the bureau, opened a a week, after paying all expenses of rent, last hours of declining life. His early course fact, was writen two years ago for the New drawer, and took out some money. What, fire, light, water, clothing, and food. I do had been peculiarly successful. He was a York Sunday Times. Believing that it may is your fee, doctor? he asked, holding the not count luxuries, such as an evening at the soldier of the revolution, distinguished for theatre, a concert, or a treat to our frends courage, and skill, and activity; his reputation had been high at the bar, as a trusty got half way up the stairs, that I would have I know a smile came over my face, for he counsellor and eloquent advocate, he had been a successful politician, admired for his tact, & the door-bell rang with energy, and the ser- all this had changed. I could not, as I often Yes, give a party; and we have some pleas- loaded with the favors of the people; he had vant announced a man who wished to see did, inquire into the circumstances of the man, and graduate my price accordingly.—

Tes, give a party, and we have some pieasant ones I assure you. Sometimes we have also been Vice President of the United States, and presided over the Senate with impartial-'gentleman' another, and a 'person' some. There he stood ready to pay me, with mon- comfort, and our treat of chocolate, cakes, ity and dignity; as he concluded his farewell thing different from either. The man stood ey enough; yet it was evident that he was a blanc mange, &c., costs as much, as two dolin the hall, but I wondered why he had not had working man, and far from being west- ars; but this is not very often. Out of our ber. Added to all these public honors, happy been called a gentleman. I was puzzled thy. I had nothing to do but to name the surplus-which comes, you see to two hundred domestic relations were the crowning jewels dollars a year-we have bought all you see, of his happiness .- e was proud of his descent from two of the best stocks of the coun-'I see it all,' said I, all but the living .- ty; he was the favored scion of the houses of Many a mechanic spends more than that for Edwards and Burr. He had the choicest edu-'Do you work for your living?' I asked; segars, to say nothing of liquor. Pray tell cation that could be afforded, & his proficiency With pleasure. First of all then, I smoke relations rejoice. He had also been happy showed the unquestionable marks of honest no segars, and chew no tobacco, and Mary in his marriage, the fruit of which was daughter, of whom any father might have been proud. She was beautiful in person, was no interruption, Mary seemed to think intelligent in mind, and gifted with a lively funcy, and a brilliant imagination. Thes natural gifts had been cultivated by the mos careful education. The conversation of the daughter, when a child was the delight of the father; when a matron, his pride. Given to the man of her own and father's choice, who also stood high in his native State, as gentleman, she was the mother of a beautiful son, not more the parents' joy than the grandfather's pride. This little pledge that the family should not die and become extinct also than a mixed one, and to find that it agreed bore the name of Aaron Burr .- Thus happy with me better; and as we have read and ex- in his public relations and domestic circle perimented together, of course Mary thinks connected with the past by proud and glorious remembrances, with the future by a golden and obscure, but pious Athenian, the happiest Doase the President of Burlington College 'Come this way, and I will show you,' he of men, in preference to the proud & wealthy New Jersey, to the next address of Mr

It grinds all my grain, gives me the freshest came as dross—the golden realities that almerica were both founded. In pursuance of and most beautiful meal, and saves tolls and ready reached through three generations, be- the resolution, the Bishop pronounced upon profits. This is a barrel of wheat. I buy came as a vision that is passed. A fearful the Fourth just past, his annual address. It costs less than three cents a pound; and a statesman, an outlaw from the land. A price from which is contained in a pampniet sent us. It costs less than three cents a pound; and a statesman, an outlaw from the land. A price from which we gathered the foregoing particulars. Having said she, in a soft, pure accent. "Little Will you have the goodness,' said I, 'just build you have the goodness,' said I, 'just build you have the goodness,' said I, 'just build you have the goodness,' said I, 'just bound of wheat a day, you know, is food was set upon his head. He was hunted from the land. A price was set upon his head. He was hunted from the land. A price was set upon his head. He was hunted from town to town, city to city. He fied in dispute the land in the condition of the land in the land. A price from which we gathered the foregoing particulars. Having said something of this any degree entitled to it, or that he is in the land in the condition of the passed through a narrow passage to where he lay, I heard the unmistakable croupy sound, that justly carries such terror to the parent's heart.

'Is it the croup, doctor?' asked the father, with a voice of emotion, as I bent over the child—a fine boy, three years of age.

'It is certainly the croup, and a pretty vioue for the soft and his wife, after going to the law, I had been seeded, and his wife, after going to the law, I had been seeded and the seeded and his wife, after going to the law, I had been seeded and the seeded and the seeded and the seeded and his wife, after going to the law, I had been seeded and the seeded and his wife, after going to the law, I had been seeded and the seeded and seeded and the seeded and the seeded and seeded and the seeded and seeded and the seeded and seeded an my dog he die by gar! Sacre!"

Society of the Last Man.

Nearly twenty-one, years ago, seven young men of this city, then in the early flush of and gone since his strange and brilliant car- manhood, entered into an association for an Congress at Vienna. And they are in our believe no spurious notes, with genuine them. It was rather the reverse, as if they were working up from a low rank of life to and we had little to put in it save ourselves; and gene since his strange and brilliant carmandon, entered into an annual meeting and supper so long as any of but we went cheerfully to work, earned all we annual meeting and supper so long as any of but we went cheerfully to work, earned all we had little to put in it save ourselves; and gene since his strange and brilliant carmannul meeting and supper so long as any of but we went cheerfully to work, earned all we could—and you see the but scarcely a breath of air—certainly not a re-but scarcely a breath of air but scarcely a breath of air-certainly not a rewere Dr. Vatter,

William Disney, Jr.,

'I see; but I confess I do not understand grettul sigh-has borne it from the tomb. William Stanbury, William Disney, Jr.,

'I see; but I confess I do not understand grettul sigh-has borne it from the tomb. William Stanbury, William Disney, Jr.,

'I see; but I confess I do not understand grettul sigh-has borne it from the tomb. Henry L. Tatem, Joseph R. Mason and Fenders, above all other nations, to aim at doing it the even imposing on the Register himself for a that were not born to die, at least, for the ton Lawson. For several years, the pleasure present, the world had agreed to forget him. of their meeting was unalloyed with sorrow Young American must work. The Young thorough investigation ever since the dis-Possibly it means no reflection thereby. It by death. In 1839 one vacant seat and one American must wait. He must not hasten covery was made that forged notes were in It has also forgotton the lamented John Wells, unused plate announced the beginning of the Jacob Van Vechten, and Etisha Williams, his wreck which death was sure to make of all never hastens. 'Patiens, quia eternus' its results has not been made, only because brilliant competitors at the bar. Even Ham- their number. By and by a second plate bore Patient, because eternal." ilton his target victim, is no longer remem- testimony to the stern reality of the relentlessness of the grave. Soon but four met at the As for Burr, there are many reasons why annual commemoration, and another unoccu-and legend have handed down his name black- A year or two longer, and the dead were ened by every crime. Long before his death, more than the living; three survivors remaineven when poor and wretched, and alone in ed, four had died; and now another, Fenton the world, he stemmed misfortune's tide, the Lawson, swells the triumph of the grave. world had resolved to forget him. No one Next October, Dr. Vattier and Henry Tatem spoke to him or seemed to notice, as engaged will meet alone if death is not too urgent, & in the active duties of an arduous profession, he walked the populous streets of New York. memorials of their departed associates, will If met in the stage coach, no one addressed they mentally agitate the question which of him; if on the ferry, which conducted him to the two, will finally sit solitary in the shadowy the solitary island home he was not recoginzed. presence of the dead, and say "to the grave In some cases, it might have been because thouart my brother, and to corruption thou men, he was naturally forgotten, when, his when the sole survivor enters the room, and the once brilliant light no longer attracted each of which tells him "what shadows we party organizations, but we question whether Wall street," have bought this right from the present Earl, and have given notice to thrust his head through a square hole which own. In New York we have the euphonious our government that they have made this served for a window, with-I say, Judge, I Heads." But it is in Maine that the most to test the legality of their right by fitting | CFBy the latest intelligence from Califorstartling novelties of nomenclature have de- out a vessel, and trying the right with Great nia, we learn that Mr. Purdy J. Hull, formerveloped themselves. We have read of meet- Britain, &c. normity of being nothing short of "Cat trial.

Since the above was written, Mr. Tatem

- Woonsceket Patriot.

AMERICANS.

It appears by the brief reply of Bishop a capacious store room. Here, first of all. In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, to celebrate, as long as he lives, the day on BARTON, of the senior class, that he intends is a mill, which cost me twelve shillings .- all this happiness was melted down and be- which that institution and the liberties of A of the age aims, as near as may be, at its it was totally unlike. The painter, however, annihilation. But this is very dangerous, was convinced that he had succeeded ad-When God made the world he made it in six mirably, and proposed that the question of pine bathing-thb, supplied with Croton. This was beyond my hope; I had no time to his example, I determined to give myself a wonder. The fittle fellow was in high fever, and have to some extent and laboring for every breath. Taking him succeeded. But a man's education is a life-ing him like hair mattress, fit for a prince to sleep little hair mattress, fit for a prince to sleep on, I took off his clean night-clothes, stood looking on, without attempting to call blue with got out a warrant & high dudgeon, forthwith got out a warrant & high dudgeon, forthwith got out a warrant & half-measured his allotted years before he is neighbors, who were present at the shooting number of the woods short of a thousand years. And man, the dog, and he tell apparently dead. C., in high dudgeon, forthwith got out a warrant & half-measured his allotted years before he is full grown. No matter in what it is, in letters, in science, in art, in war, in government, in sevence, in any thing that is to be for real greatness. ing. The magistrate fined B. ten dollars and any thing that is to be for real greatness, critics' eyes. paid the fine and costs-and when the parties and patient labor be employed. Think of the got home from the trial, the dog had come studies of Sir Isase Newton. Think of the home also, and was not killed. B. then got touches of Raphael. Think of the chisel of has the following in relation to a subject that a warrant against the Frenchman and his two Canova. See by what lengthened process is now exciting much attention among our associates for perjury, in swearing B. had Rome grew up to be the mistress of the monied men: killed the dog. They were frightened, and world. Contemplate the slow march of Engmade peace with B , paid him back his twenty land's greatness. And remember how the disclosed the fact that forged notes on the dollars, and ten more for his trouble—and no Fathers of our Republic waited, and watched, Champaign County and Forest City Banks trial was had; and when the parties returned and toiled, and prayed before the hour was were in circulation. Some of them had been h me from the last suit, lo! the dog was dead. reached that consecrates this day. And then received by certain banks and bankers of our Imagine the "feelings" of the Frenchman pursue their blood-stained footsteps through city. A prudent caution will induce all persons and his party, "he shot my dog-he die-I the seven years' war, by which the issues of who are not very familiar with the signatures swear-and dam dog resurrects himself. By that hour were consummated and made pergar I find I swear bad; I settle for him-then petual. The Young American that would do er of the State Stock Banks, to refuse their greatness; and, if there were Republicans notes issued.

The New York papers are discussing a been placed in a false position by it. new claim, that to us has all the novelty of The forbearance of those who have conthe claim of some sharp speculators to the sented to be unjustly censured themselves, entire Western Reserve. This is nothing rather than do anything which would interelse than a claim, set up by somebody styling rupt or in any way interfere with the thorough himself the Earl of Stirling, to the exclusive investigation of the stupendous fraud which right to that portion of the fisheries on the appears to have been perpetrated, will, we British American coast which is now in dis- hope, be duly appreciated by the public. In pute between our government and that of the mean time, we can assure our readers that Great Britain. This pretended Earl of the investigation is going on, and that noth-Stirling is, as is claimed, a fineal descendant ing will be left undone to ferretout the guilty of one Sir. WM. ALEXANDER, who was creat- parties and bring them to justice. We hope ed Viscount of Canada and Earl of Stirling the public curiosity will soon be gratified; but by JAMES I. This monarch granted to the it is much better that it should not be for Earl vast possessions in Canada, and also the the present, if its gratification should obexclusive right of fishing within six lengues struct the investigation now in progress, or of the shore, on all the territories of New enable the guilty parties to evade the punish-Brunswick, Nova Scotia, &c. This grant, it ment they so richly deserve. is claimed, was confirmed afterwards by CHARLES I. Such is the origin of the claim. The New York Herald says that a tormidable company, composed of a distinguished statesman, one of the prominent bankers of the prominent PARTY Nomenclature. - Partisan nick- Washington, a former assistant secretary of stopped to contemplate the too evident povnames have always been a natural result of the treasury, and several leading capitalists of erty of the scene. A poor, half starved feltitles of "Hunkers," "Barnburners," "Hards," purchase, and have an exclusive claim to all aint so poor as you think me to be, for I don't "Soits," "Silver Grays," and "Wooley the fishing grounds in dispute. They propose own this ere land."

ngs held here of "Ramrods," and "Anti- Now, this looks formidable; but some writ-Ramrods," and to crown all we have a er in the New York Tribune has given the with the world-renowned Lola Montez. Thir Salmon Party" and a "Haddock Party." subject a thorough examination, and he de-There is a mysterious obscurity about these monstrates that the entire scheme is one of about." Lola is "some" and no mistake' but itles, and we cannot attempt their elucida- the greatest humbugs of the day. This is it may be that the ex-devil of the Xenia Free ion. All we know is that Gov. Crosby was not the first time this pretended claim has Press will be able to manage her, as he is a 'Haddock" last year, & is now charged with been agitated. In 1825, a stupendous effort eing "Salmon." Pillsbury before the Bangor was made to accomplish something for this Convention was supposed to be "Haddock," pretended Earl, but it utterly failed. We will but since his nomination is charged with the state a few of the facts developed in that Fish." It requires a more protound pisca- There was a grant to Sir WM. ALEXANDER torial knowledge than we can claim to de- of the kind claimed, about 250 years ago. constrate the differences between these The son of this gentleman becoming involvarious finny politicians, but we should think ed, sold the right to one of the French that a party supported by such worthies ought, colonists. By the treaty of St. Germain, o by all means, to make a handsome nett gain. 1632, all these British colonies were ceded to New Bedford Mercury. France. By the treaty of Utrecht, in 1713. they were restored to England, but on a new DEATH WHILE ON THE WAY TO THE ALTAR. basis, that is, as if they had then become -A young man by the name of Edmund British for the first time. The ALEXANDERS Slatterly, while on his way from Franklin to slept upon their claim from 1632 till 1825. In ter. Milford, on Sunday week, to be married, met that year a Scotch school teacher ALEXANDwith a singular and fatal accident. He stop. IR HUMPHELY obtained a royal license to asped at a well to water his horse, when the sume the name of Alexander. He claimed bucket fell into the well. He descended to that this was his mother's name before obtain it, when the wall caved in and buried marriage, and he desired to wear it out o im. He was a native of Ireland. His in- respect to the wishes of his maternal grandtended wife was accompanying him on the father. He paid the usual fees and the name ourney, when this singular death thus in- was changed. He soon after assumed the tervened to destroy their bright anticipations, name of "Earl of Stirling." But he has never been able to satisfy the world on this has been tried for forging papers to sustain his claims, and the court has decided that the papers were forgeries. The details of these events have all the interest of one of JAMES'

It will be seen that two hundred years ago the house of Stirling sold this right, and there is no evidence that it was ever repurchased. But, if it had not been sold, and if no argunor justify any one in the supposition that

THOSE FORGED BANK NOTES.
The Cincinnati Gazette of this morning justice to his name must learn to wait. What notes until the mystery in which this whole he can do well off-hand he can do better with matter is now involved shall be dispelled or a deliberation. There is no royal road to real new plate shall have been engraved and new should not adopt it. We have greater is-sues in our hands than ever came before the vance of any authoritative statement, that we best. The Young American must study. The time. The matter has been undergoing a to be wise, or to be rich, or to be great. God circulation; and a public announcement of no public good could have been subserved thereby, and because parties supposed to be perfectly innocent and honest would have ly of this place, and proprietor of the San Francisco Whig, has committed matrimony is a marriage that will be ant to be "talked man of considerable stamina .- Torch Light

THE TELEGRAPH. -- Seven years ago Professor Morse sent the first telegraphic despatch from Washington to New York, Since that about fourteen thousand miles of telegraph lines have been constructed in the United

The following says the Boston Times, are he demands which the British Government have made upon ours as the conditions of the settlement of the fishery question:

1st. The admission of British built vessels to the privilege of American Regis-2d. The admission of the British flag to the coasting trade between the American, Atlantic and Pacific ports. 3d. The abolition of our present bounties to the American Cod fishery.

4th. A further modification of our tariff of course with a view to fayor British interest. And 5th. The original demand of reciprocity of trade with the North American